SPECIALISATION

Current

Charter manages Telstra's extensive national divestment property portfolio. Having worked with Telstra for over six years, Aarti's primary responsibility is to provide commercial and legal advice with respect to this portfolio. This includes supervising external law firms nationally.

Working closely with Charter's Managing Director and Director of Finance and Administration, Aarti also advises Charter in matters of contract and employment law.

Former

Aarti has several years of private practice legal experience having previously worked in the Property and Infrastructure divisions of leading national law firms, Corrs Chambers Westgarth and HWL Ebsworth.

During this time, she has advised clients across a variety of industries and sectors and acted for some of Australia's largest property developers, ASX listed corporations, financial institutions and governmental bodies.

For over a decade, Aarti has also supported the community by providing pro-bono legal support to organisations such as the Women's Legal Service, and Homeless Persons Legal Clinic.

Aarti engages in public speaking events by taking part in panel discussions, hosting various cultural and political events including the opening of visiting exhibitions at the Immigration Museum of Victoria and a fundraising dinner for the former Prime Minister of Fiji.
