

28 April 2015

Immediate Release

New Appointments – Charter Keck Cramer’s Melbourne and Sydney Offices

Charter Keck Cramer, Australia’s largest independent property advisory firm, has appointed:

Ivan Lam - Executive Manager | ASEAN Regions/China

Based in the Melbourne Head office, Ivan will engage in relationship management with the company’s offshore and local investor clients. Ivan has a strong background in finance and has come to Charter Keck Cramer from the Commonwealth Bank. Ivan will be reporting to Peter Hutchins as Managing Director and Scott Keck as Chairman.

Rob Burgess – Associate

Rob Burgess re-joins Charter Keck Cramer Research team after gaining further experience as the State Manager for a national greenfield developer and operating his own property and planning consultancy. Rob brings together a wide range of skills to deliver integrated, evidence-based property solutions.

Felix Leung - Senior Research Analyst

Felix has joined Charter Keck Cramer’s fast growing Sydney office as a Senior Research Analyst within the Advisory team. Felix has previously held analyst roles at BIS Shrapnel and MacroPlan Dimasi. Felix will be reporting to Bennett Wulff, who is heading Charter’s expanding Sydney office.

Please contact Katrina Toone should you require any further information.